

100 years since the first successful transplantation of cornea

The University Hospital Olomouc

invites you to the ceremony of unveiling a memorial plaque
in honour of the head physician of the Eye Clinic

Dr. Eduard Konrad Zirm,

who carried out the first successful transplantation of cornea
in the world in Olomouc on December 7, 1905.

The memorial plaque will be unveiled on December 7, 2005 at 10.00 a.m.
near the entrance to the Eye Clinic of the University Hospital Olomouc.

100 years since the first successful transplantation of cornea

100 years since the first successful transplantation of cornea

The University Hospital Olomouc

invites you to the ceremony of unveiling a memorial plaque
in honour of the head physician of the Eye Clinic

Dr. Eduard Konrad Zirm,

who carried out the first successful transplantation of cornea
in the world in Olomouc on December 7, 1905.

The memorial plaque will be unveiled on December 7, 2005 at 10.00 a.m.
near the entrance to the Eye Clinic of the University Hospital Olomouc.

100 years since the first successful transplantation of cornea

100 years since the first successful transplantation of cornea

The University Hospital Olomouc

invites you to the ceremony of unveiling a memorial plaque
in honour of the head physician of the Eye Clinic

Dr. Eduard Konrad Zirm,

who carried out the first successful transplantation of cornea
in the world in Olomouc on December 7, 1905.

The memorial plaque will be unveiled on December 7, 2005 at 10.00 a.m.
near the entrance to the Eye Clinic of the University Hospital Olomouc.

100 years since the first successful transplantation of cornea