

Sale of non-operational land at the Breitenbach site

Breitenbach, April 1, 2021 – The Von Roll Group has succeeded in selling the land at the Breitenbach site that has been unused for years. The buyer is Steiner Investment Foundation, which works closely with Steiner AG, one of the largest real estate developers in Switzerland.

The transfer is very attractive for both parties. The land acquired by Steiner Investment Foundation is centrally located in the community of Breitenbach and is therefore suitable for the expansion of residential and commercial space. With the sale, the Von Roll Group realizes a high cash inflow, which will be invested completely for future growth.

The production and administration currently located at the Breitenbach site will stay in full operation on the remaining land in the future.
